

Fulbright US Scholar Opportunities in Latin America for 2020-2021

by Peter Raucci

The 2020-2021 Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program is accepting applications from U.S.-citizen academics and professionals through the deadline of September 16th, 2019. Fulbright Scholars are selected for their academic merit and leadership potential to teach, research, and exchange ideas. There are over 450 awards available in more than 130 countries; complete details are located in the Catalog of Awards.

Below is a sample of awards available for Latin America:

CODE	AWARD TITLE	COUNTRY/AREA
10397-BR	Fulbright Distinguished Chair in International Relations at University of Sao Paulo (USP)	Brazil
10432-CI	Social Sciences, Humanities and Education	Chile
10440-ES	All Disciplines	El Salvador
10447-MX	U.S. Studies Chair	Mexico
10396-BL	All Disciplines	Bolivia
10454-PM	Science, Technology and Education	Panama
10455-PA	All Disciplines	Paraguay

I also link a list of all awards to the Western Hemisphere.

Eligibility criteria, application guidelines, review criteria, as well as other resources are available on our website. We also offer webinars throughout the application season, which provide additional details about the program and allow for audience Q&A participation. We encourage you to be in touch.

Sincerely,
The Fulbright Western Hemisphere Team

Fulbright US Scholar Western Hemisphere Team
Institute of International Education
Westhem@iie.org | www.cies.org

IIE • The Power of International Education
2020-2021 Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program
Competition Deadline: September 16, 2019
Refer a Colleague • Register Your Interest