

ILAS (Institute of Latin American Studies, School of Advanced Study, University of London) is currently accepting applications for its 2019/2020 Stipendiary Fellowship Scheme (September 2019 - July 2020). Fellows will visit ILAS for periods of 3 to 6 months. They will be based at Senate House, London and receive a monthly stipend of £1750 (gross) throughout their fellowships, amongst other benefits.

This scheme provides support to Early Career Scholars with relevant subject expertise to pursue innovative and interdisciplinary research on Latin America and the Caribbean in an environment tailored to such work, free from competitive institutional constraints. Fellows engage a broad range of UK and international scholars in their research through the formation of networks and through collaboration in research projects, publications and dissemination events such as workshops and conferences.
