

Dear colleagues (and sorry for X-post), we have a one-year post-doc scholarship for project exPERTs (<https://expertsproject.org/>) at the Institute of Social Sciences of the University of Lisbon. The project is on expertise in housing and planning policy, with focus on the Special Programme of Rehousing; the post-doc will work on case studies of the implementation of the programme, and is expected to carry out ethnography and policy analysis. We need someone who's proficient in Portuguese - and possibly with previous experience on the Portuguese planning system. The deadline is August 27. All details here:

Please share if you know someone that may be interested,

Simone
