

LET'S WAIT

MATERA (European Capital of Culture, 2019), 4-5 OCTOBER 2019

PROJECT, THEORY, PUBLISHING. Two half-days of work around the publishing industry that deals (or should deal) with Architectural Design today. Are the magazines, but also the series, dead? Are they still a vehicle of strategies and positions? On the other hand, how to communicate architecture between digital and traditional means? Is it better to prefer articles in scientific journals or essays, curate them and monographs? How to raise the scientific dignity and dissemination of our research practices in Design.

We will be there to give POSITIVE answers because we believe in the VALUE of Architecture.

From September more details. Follow us.
