Dear ACSP Colleagues,

The ACSP Global Planning Education Committee (GPEC) is pleased to share with you a video library of talks and panels we (co)organized over the last year. We hope these will be a useful resource, particularly as you plan your syllabi or consider ways to strengthen the global dimensions of your programs' curriculum, research, and student recruitment.

Included are videos from a workshop we sponsored during the spring 2021 ACSP Administrator's Conference and New Chair's School, focused on strategies for mainstreaming global dimensions of planning in urban planning curricula. The sessions feature a keynote and short talks (7-11 minutes) given by a range of perspectives from the PAB and diverse urban planning programs.

We also include two sessions we co-sponsored during the ACSP 2020 Conference, on "The Changing International Higher Education Market in Urban Planning" and "Capacity Building for The New Urban Agenda: The Role of Universities and Researchers".

Thanks to all of you who contributed to these events and who helped create the library,
