The Routledge Handbook of Urban Studies in Latin America and the Caribbean

Cities, Urban Processes, and Policies

Edited by Jesús M. González-Pérez, Clara Irazábal and Rubén C. Lois-González

This handbook presents the great contemporary challenges facing cities and urban spaces in Latin America and the Caribbean. The contributions in this handbook enhance the theoretical, empirical and methodological study of urbanization processes and urban policies of Latin America and the Caribbean in a global context, making it an important reference for scholars across the world. The book is designed to meet the interdisciplinary study and consultation needs of undergraduate and graduate students of architecture, urban design, urban planning, sociology, anthropology, political science, public administration, and more.
