OLA

Is the UN approach to the future ambitious enough? Does it represent the aspirations of the diversity of peoples around the world? Can it empower nations, communities, and cultures to identify their paths to fulfill their own expectations, desires, and capacities?

This panel will challenge the UN Summit approach envisioning a single future based on decades of meetings and international commitments.

Speakers will examine different attitudes towards the future, means of articulating fears and desires for the world to come, including possibilities, limitations, and agency. The idea is to create spaces for more inclusive imaginations.

The event will conclude with an open conversation with the audience about their insights provoked by the panlists.

2084 Futuros imaginados desde el Sur

PANEL

FUTUROS EN DISPUTA:

Más allá de la Cumbre del Futuro de la ONU

¿Es el enfoque de las Naciones Unidas hacia el futuro lo suficientemente ambicioso?
¿Representa las aspiraciones de la diversidad de los pueblos del mundo? ¿Puede empoderar a las naciones, comunidades y culturas para identificar los caminos que los conduzcan a cumplir sus propias expectativas, deseos y capacidades?

Este panel desafiará la propuesta de la Cumbre de la ONU, que imagina un futuro único basado en décadas de reuniones y compromisos internacionales.

Los oradores examinarán diferentes actitudes hacia el futuro, formas de articular miedos y deseos para el porvenir, incluidas las posibilidades, limitaciones y agencia.

La idea es crear espacios para imaginaciones más inclusivas. El evento concluirá con una conversación abierta con la audiencia sobre las ideas provocadas por los panelistas.
