

GLOBAL DIALOGUE #2

This second issue of the new ISA Newsletter, Global Dialogue, is out. It features a dialogue between Ulrich Beck and Raewyn Connell on global sociology as well as reports from around the world — research stories from China and Bangladesh, election assessments from Brazil and Belarus, and conference reports from Germany, Kyrgyzstan, Indonesia, and Poland. We are also pleased to announce the Program Committee for the Yokohama Congress, provide news and history about ISA publications, and an obituary of Mattei Dogan. Global Dialogue #2 at <http://www.isa-sociology.org/global-dialogue/> where it can be read in 5 languages or as individual articles.

Send any queries, submission, suggestions to Michael Burawoy at burawoy@berkeley.edu

CONTENTS OF GLOBAL DIALOGUE #2

- Kiss the Frog: The Cosmopolitan Turn in Sociology
- How Can We Weave a World Sociology?
- Foxconn: The Global Predator
- Dhaka: Megacity of Despair
- On “Lulismo”
- History Corner
- Towards an ‘E-Forum for Sociology’
- In Memoriam: Mattei Dogan, 1920-2010
- Attention: An authoritarian regime threatens sociology!
- What’s Happening to Society? The Long View From Poland
- Globalization and the Turkic World
- Questioning Trans-nationalism at the Centennial of the German Sociological Society
- Global Migration: Perspectives from Bali