

Dear Professor/Researcher,

The Organizing Committee invites the community to submit proposals to the 1st International Symposium on Qualitative Research (<http://ciaiq.org/?lang=en>) to be held in Porto (Portugal), on days 12 and 13 July 2016. The city of Oporto was chosen as the “Best European Destination 2014“, an award given annually by the “European Consumers Choice,” an independent, non-profit organization.

ISQR2016 will take place, between 12 and 13 July 2016, in Oporto, Portugal. The sponsors and partners are the Tallin University, the Lusófona University of Porto, the CiberDidact Group, University of Extremadura, the Nursing School of São Paulo University, the Federal University of Goiás, the University of Minho, the webQDA of Aveiro University and the Micro IO Company, Ludomedia, among others.

Authors may submit proposals for presentation of papers that meet the goals and themes of the Symposium, including original scientific papers addressing revisions to the state of the art research and new perspectives, solutions and/or applications to real problems, empirical and/or evaluation, among others.

Selected papers will be published by Springer in a book or published in top-quality journals indexed by ISI-Web of Knowledge, SCOPUS and/or Qualis.

Thanking you for all the help you may provide to ISQR2016 we put ourselves at your disposal to provide any further relevant information.

With our best wishes,

ISQR2016 Organizing Committee

<http://ciaiq.org/?lang=en>

