

Submission deadline for the Lincoln Institute Case Study Awards extended to January 2, 2018

In partnership with the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, the Lincoln Institute is offering ten, $1,000 case study proposal awards. The submission deadline has been extended to January 2, 2018. Award winners will be announced on February 2, 2018.

The Case Study Awards will be given to authors to write case studies that will be hosted in a digital case study library and freely available for anyone.

Applications for the Case Study Awards must focus on one or more of the Lincoln Institute's four themes: Land Value Capture and the Property Tax, Informality and Urban Poverty, Climate Change, and Municipal Fiscal Health.

For more detailed information on the Case Study Awards and how to apply, visit the competition web page.

To learn more about the Lincoln Institute of Land Policy, visit our website: www.lincolnst.edu and follow our work on Twitter @landpolicy

The Lincoln Institute of Land Policy seeks to improve quality of life through the effective use, taxation, and stewardship of land. A nonprofit private operating foundation whose origins date to 1946, the Lincoln Institute researches and recommends creative approaches to land as a solution to economic, social, and environmental challenges. Through education, training, publications, and events, we integrate theory and practice to inform public policy decisions worldwide.

Lincoln Institute of Land Policy | 113 Brattle Street | Cambridge, MA 02138 | www.lincolnst.edu