

Dear all,

We are delighted to announce our first call for applications for our new Diversity Scholarship to attend the Global Challenges in Transport Programme 2020, a programme of short residential courses organised by the Transport Studies Unit at the University of Oxford.

We are strongly committed to delivering a programme that allows knowledge exchange and dialogue amongst a rich and diverse group of researchers and practitioners from different countries and backgrounds.

This scholarship provides a unique opportunity for under-represented voices to participate in our courses.

The scholarship will cover all tuition fees and accommodation, plus visa and travel expenses up to £500, enabling beneficiaries to attend one of our courses in 2020.

Candidates applying must satisfy the following requirements:

- Be a national of (and currently working/ researching in) countries who receive official development assistance from the Development Assistance Committee \(DAC\) of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD);
- Have fluency in the English language; and
- Show strong evidence of work/ research experience in the transport policy/ planning sector in line with the specific theme/ content of the course for which they are applying.

The application deadline for a scholarship is 8 weeks before the start date of each course.
