INTERCULTURAL DIALOGUES

Researchers from different cultures founded the scientific collection ID, Intercultural Dialogues, with the aims of realizing a meeting place for scholars around the world and of opening a dialogue that respects the diversity and cultural identities of each country on the valorization of cultural heritage.

It is also apparent that, in an era of rapid global change, the intercultural dialogue among different values plays a critical role in safeguarding traditional heritage and in strengthening cultural and social integration of the communities.

Peer Review: Contributed articles are assessed through a double-blind peer review process
