online till 15 January 2018

The official programme of the World Urban Forum 9 has just been launched. Find it online on wuf9.org!

The online registration period for WUF9 will end on 15 January 2018. Each participant at the World Urban Forum must be registered individually to attend the conference, a registration by organization is not allowed. The registration is free of charge. Everybody who has registered online will be able to collect his/her individual badge to access the venue at the WUF9 Accreditation Center.

The Ninth session of the World Urban Forum will take place from 7 to 13 February 2018 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. WUF9 is the key platform to discuss the implementation of the New Urban Agenda and the urban dimension of the Sustainable Development Goals.

It is the the world's premier conference on urban issues, established in 2001 by the United Nations. WUF9 is one of the most open gatherings in the international arena, for exchanging views and experiences on urban challenges.
