

Please find below details of two Collaborative ESRC studentships available at the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Stirling, to commence in September 2019. Please forward these onto any potential UK/EU undergraduate or postgraduate students who you think may be interested:

The first is with Shelter Scotland on student homelessness in Scotland:

<https://www.sgsss.ac.uk/studentship/understanding-student-homelessness-in-higher-education-in-scotland/>

The second is with the Improvement Service for Local Government in Scotland, on using administrative data to understand neighbourhood environmental quality:

<https://www.sgsss.ac.uk/studentship/using-administrative-data-to-improve-neighbourhood-environmental-services-and-outcomes/>

Applications should be made directly through the website of the Scottish Graduate School of Social Sciences, www.sgsss.ac.uk

Dr Peter Matthews (he/him) | Deputy Associate Dean for Research | Senior Lecturer in Social Policy – Faculty of Social Sciences | University of Stirling

4T18, R.G. Bomont Building, University of Stirling, Stirling FK9 4LA

Tel: (01786) 467688 | email: peter.matthews@stir.ac.uk | @urbaneprofessor | <http://www.stir.ac.uk/social-sciences/>

Access my recent research at: <https://www.stir.ac.uk/people/27268>

The University achieved an overall 5 stars in the QS World University Rankings 2018

The University of Stirling is a charity registered in Scotland, number SC 011159.
