25 Simple Resolutions You Can Make to Improve Your City in 2019

Around this time of year, you're likely putting the finishing touches on the usual list of New Year's resolutions you've decided to dust off again. While you're deciding, what if you also gave some serious consideration to one of the most important relationships in your life—the relationship you have with the city you live in?

Cities Outlook 2019

In a spending review year, Cities Outlook 2019 explores how local government cuts since 2010 have impacted UK cities, finding that cities have shouldered almost three-quarters of all local government spending cuts.

Not only that, but with an ever-increasing demand for services like social care, cities are dedicating more and more of their spending to these vital services, leaving little room to pursue activity in support of their wider economy.

With the end of austerity in sight, this year's Cities Outlook looks at how cities have responded to cuts in their spending, and what new avenues for revenue they have been able to explore.
