

Applications for the Mundus Urbano 2020-2022 cohort are open!

Are you interested in looking to understand and improve the systems behind the dynamic challenges faced throughout the world due to rapid urbanization processes?

Until January 15, 2020 you can apply for Mundus Urbano to be considered as a scholarship student. To find out more about the programme and application process, visit: mundus-urbano.eu/applications/ (Link in Bio).

Upon successful completion of the first year in TU Darmstadt and depending on students' mobility preference, MU students are admitted to spend the second year of the programme at one of the partner universities in France, Spain, or Italy. Students in this case are awarded a double-degree. Here you can find more detailed information about the second year course contents. Please note that slight changes in the curriculum may occur.

How to apply

The application process for the TU Darmstadt requires that all students register and complete an application form online.

For international candidates: the online application is accessible through the following link. Additionally, please ensure you fill out the additional questions form. It must be attached to the hard and soft copies of your application.

For candidates holding German degrees: the online application is accessible through the following link. Please select the programme "International Cooperation in Urban Development (Master)." All candidates holding a German degree should also fill out the additional questions form.
