

Dear Sir/Madam,

Please find enclosed the information about the Master Erasmus Mundus in Diagnosis and Repair of Buildings promoted by the University of Seville (Spain). This european programme is coordinated by the University of Seville, the partners of this project are the University of Reggio Calabria (Italy) and the University of Lublin (Poland). The master course begins in october 2009 and the duration is one year and a half. The master course has 90 ECTS structured in a Core Section (60 ECTS) and a Specialization Section (20 ECTS) and a End-of-Course Project. The European Commission awards grants, through action 2, to non European scholars and students interested in carrying out teaching and research tasks in an Erasmus Mundus master course. This grant covers the travel expenses and the stay of scholars for three months with 13,000 euros. The students' grant amounts to (35,600 euros for the duration of the master course 16 months). You can download the application form from the web page. The deadline is the 22nd of February 2009.

INFORMATION AND CONTACT:

info@emdireb.eu

www.emdireb.eu

Gloria Jimenez Nuñez.

Secretaría EMDiReB.

info@emdireb.eu

Avd. Marie Curie, nº 3. Isla de la Cartuja. Sevilla. 41092 | Telf.: 954 460 120 | Fax: 954 460 297 | e-mail: info@emdireb.eu | Web: www.emdireb.eu
