<<http://www.ics.ul.pt/instituto/?doc=3200000020&ln=p&mm=4&mnid=10&ctmid=3>> of the University of Lisbon. In my institute (Institute of Social Sciences) we support candidatures in the areas of urban studies, geography and planning

- we coordinate the module on "Development in Transition

<<http://www.ics.ul.pt/posgraduacao/documents/PhDDevelopmentCourse.pdf>>".

The applications are done on the webpage of the coordinating institution

<https://aquila4.iseg.ulisboa.pt/aquila/unicidade/spg/candidaturas/doutoramentos?request_cheksum=9df9cd2d7c56b070dafedb1fa8a7f85514393ae4&locale=en>, the School in Economics and Management.

The decisions of the first round of opening, which closes on February 28, will be provided in time to submit a bid for funding at the Fundação para a Ciência e Tecnologia, which provides most PhD scholarships in Portugal.

I'm happy to discuss informally with potential applicants, best wishes, Simone
