

Here in Hong Kong, we've just finished celebrating the Chinese New Year. I'd like to wish you a prosperous Year of the Pig and hope you can join our spectacular celebration next year!

As the Asia's world city, Hong Kong is an ideal place to experience Asian culture and learn the most updated knowledge of tourism and hospitality. The School of Hotel and Tourism Management at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University is offering 1-year master's degrees with multiple tuition waiver scholarships. Online application is NOW OPEN until April 30, 2019. Further details about the curriculum, entrance requirements, costs, and admission are available on our School's website. To apply for our program(s), please visit Study@PolyU.

See you in Hong Kong!
