

It is now open a call for applications for the PhD in Tourism at the University of S. Paulo, a Brazilian leading institution based in the city of S. Paulo. As a public university, no tuition fees apply to its nearly 100.000 undergrad and graduate students.

Candidates can apply for one of the 10 available places in the following research areas: Tourism: Knowledge and Trends and Tourism: Processes and Innovation. The selection process will be held in São Paulo (March 14-15) and it is based on language skills proficiency, theoretical exams and interviews.

The course requires attendance of classes in Brazil and a complete thesis at the end of the 4-years program, to be written and publicly defended in Portuguese, Spanish or English.

Deadline for applications: March 8, 2019
