

LEE KUAN YEW WORLD CITY ○ PRIZE

Issue 01 / 2023

Boston's collective effort to transform the city + nominations closing soon!

Reimagining Boston: a collective effort

Like many top cities in the United States, Boston faces complex challenges of housing, public transit, and climate-readiness. What stands out about Boston's journey to become a more liveable city is how its stakeholders come together to partner the city to build a better, more resilient home.

Read the feature story

Nominations closing soon!

Join the ranks of our Prize Laureates and showcase your city's innovative solutions and sustainable initiatives on a global stage. Apply for the Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize 2024 and be a part of shaping the future of urban living.

Apply now!

Boston in pictures: stimulating changes big & small

From a post-war decline to a city on the rebound, Boston has remade itself through massive infrastructure projects, as well as smaller insertions to stimulate bigger changes. In this photo essay, we look at some examples of Boston's urban transformation, big and small.

View the photo essay

Previous features

→ Antwerp – a strategy of slow urbanism

→ Antwerp in pictures – a city taking things slow

Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize is a biennial international award that honours outstanding cities in tackling urban challenges to bring about a holistic & sustained urban transformation. | More info

Secretariat: Urban Redevelopment Authority

Co-organiser: Centre for Liveable Cities

Sponsor: Keppel Corporation

Presented at: World Cities Summit

www.leekuaneyeworldcityprize.gov.sg

Copyright © 2023, Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize, Urban Redevelopment Authority Singapore, All Rights Reserved