

LEE KUAN YEW WORLD CITY ○ PRIZE

Issue 04 / 2023

Localised & ground-up placemaking + last chance to nominate your city!

Going local and ground-up in making places (Part 1)

Post-pandemic cities are increasingly turning to localised initiatives to strengthen place identities and community engagement. This two-part feature explores key strategies employed by cities to implement sustainable, community-driven placemaking and highlights creative projects around the world.

Read the feature story

Final chance to nominate your city!

Don't miss the last chance to nominate your city for the Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize 2024! Nominations will close on 14 July 2023. We are happy to share that we have made the Stage B report simpler and easier to complete.

Apply now!

Case study 19: safeguarding Vienna against future floods

Vienna's foresight and long-term planning into the future helps the city avoid devastating floods and safeguards its safe growth.

Read the case study

Previous features

→ Climate-smart cities for the future

→ Case study 18: turning parking lanes into parklets

Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize is a biennial international award that honours outstanding cities in tackling urban challenges to bring about a holistic & sustained urban transformation. | More info

Secretariat: Urban Redevelopment Authority

Co-organiser: Centre for Liveable Cities

Sponsor: Keppel Corporation

Presented at: World Cities Summit

www.leekuaneyeworldcityprize.gov.sg