Dear Colleagues,

The Lincoln Institute of Land Policy hereby invites applications for the David C. Lincoln Fellowship Program. The goal of this program is to develop academic and professional interest in land value taxation through support for major research projects. Projects may address either the basic theory of land value taxation or its application to specific domestic or international issues. Research funding for each approved project will be between $20,000 and $30,000 a year, and may be renewed for up to three years.

If you are interested in applying for the fellowship, please visit our website at http://www.lincolninst.edu/education/dcl_fellowships.asp to review the Application Guidelines and to see a list of past fellowship recipients.

Email applications must be submitted to fellowships@lincolninst.edu by September 15, 2015.

If you have questions about the application process, please contact fellowships@lincolninst.edu.
