

Dear Colleagues,

Apologies for cross-posting, and a word of gratitude if you could please kindly spread the word around or redirect the below email to someone you might think interested in joining us.

The Department of Industrial Design at the College of Design is going through a major curriculum renewal, at both under- and grad programmes level; and we are now looking for colleagues and peers who are interested in sharing and starting a new era of knowledge construction in Design Research, Professional practices update and take a plunge into new industrial futures a par with the major technological and scientific developments at Iowa State University.

Please do get in contact with our new Chair, Professor Dr. Seda McKilligan or our new Director of Graduate Education, Associate Professor Dr. Carlos Cardoso, if you have any further questions. Thank you in advance for your help and consideration!

Looking forward to hearing from you soon,

Kindest regards,

Ana Luz
