

Wiley-Blackwell

Exchanges

Online Conferences for the Social Sciences / Humanities Community

Join us in the largest online meeting of minds in the Social Sciences and Humanities

The Changing Face of War

November 14 – 20 2011

REGISTER
For FREE now

We are delighted to announce the second conference in the Wiley-Blackwell Exchanges Online Conference Series – The Changing Face of War, following on from the extraordinary success of our previous conference Wellbeing: A Cure-All for the Social Sciences? We hope you will join us for this exciting event!

The program is shaping up very well and we are now pleased to announce the following themes of the conference. Each will be represented by a stimulating selection of free content. All delegates are encouraged to participate in the discussion whenever it suits their schedule.

Theory and Philosophy of War

Is war essential for humanity?

War in Cultural Context

Styles of warfare: the West and the Rest

From Home Front to Front Line

What can military historians learn from social and cultural historians, and vice versa?

Evolution of Warfare

Are we witnessing 'new' kinds and locations of war in the 21st century?

Peacemaking, Reconstruction and Nation-Building

How are wars absorbed and resolved, both physically and mentally?

Vietnamese refugee in a
Malaysian camp
(Image: Benjamin Gimmel)

Follow Us!

Other features of the conference include:

- ❖ Slide-cast keynote addresses from leading figures in the field
- ❖ Scholarly articles with expert commentary
- ❖ Publishing workshops
- ❖ Live Q&A with presenters
- ❖ A book and journal 'Reading Room', plus a generous delegates' discount
- ❖ Previews of 'Encyclopedia of War' and 'Handbook of Peace Psychology'
- ❖ Text discussion open to all
- ❖ Attendance certificate