Frontera Norte is published in Spanish and English every six months by El Colef. Founded in 1989, the journal seeks to disseminate research on Mexican border areas, as well as regional and border-related issues in other national and international contexts. Frontera Norte also publishes other contributions in the social sciences considered relevant by members of its editorial board or staff editors. Frontera Norte is listed in several journal indexes and bases of international renown such as: Índice de Revistas Científicas Mexicanas (CONACYT), CLASE, DOAJ, LANIC, HAPI, HLAS, OCLC PAIS, REDALyC, Latindex and SciELO.

We are pleased to invite scholars specializing in the areas covered by Frontera Norte to submit papers for publication. The complete collection and the guidelines for submitting papers can be accessed through our webpage:
