International Policy Debate on Remittances,
Entrepreneurship and Development

29 May, 2013

Maastricht

The Netherlands

Maastricht Graduate School of Governance welcomes registrations for the International Policy Debate on Remittances, Entrepreneurship and Development, to be held at Maastricht University on May 29th, 2013. The goal of the International Policy Debate is to bring together policy makers, practitioners and academics to discuss the past and future of research and policies that address remittances, entrepreneurship and development in a globalizing world. The International Policy Debate is a joint initiative of Maastricht Graduate School of Governance and the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The Event

The international policy debate is divided into three panel discussions:

1. Evidence on linkages between migration, remittances, entrepreneurship, and development
2. State of the art on policies and programs on remittances, entrepreneurship and development
3. Policy options to strengthen the development effects of remittances and entrepreneurship

Confirmed keynote speakers include Prof. Dr. Wim Naudé (Maastricht School of Management), Prof. Dr. Ronald Skeldon (University of Sussex), Dilip Ratha (World Bank), and Dr. Melissa Siegel (Maastricht Graduate School of Governance).

Registration and further information

We welcome registrations from academics, policy makers and practitioners working in the area of remittances, entrepreneurship and development. Please visit <http://mgsog.merit.unu.edu/permalink.php?id=853> to register. The deadline for registration is April 15th, 2013. There is no registration fee. Please register as soon as possible as we have a limited number of spots available for the debate.

The workshop will be held at Maastricht School of Management, Maastricht, The Netherlands.
