

Dear Colleagues:

The Department of Urban and Regional Planning at the University of Colorado Denver is seeking a full-time Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor with an intended start date of Fall 2018 or Spring 2019. We are looking for a colleague who shares our commitment to advancing equity and justice and enhancing quality of life through research, teaching, and service that help shape policy and support positive change in underserved communities. Preference will be given to applicants whose research and teaching address one or more of the following areas: economic development, housing and community development, land use policy and governance, physical planning, real estate development, planning for public health, transportation and infrastructure planning, and/or urban design. For more information about our department, visit <http://tiny.cc/MURP>.

Job Posting #12873.

Please send any questions to search committee chair Jeremy Németh or any other member of the search committee, which consists of all full time faculty in the department. We will begin reviewing applications on March 31, 2018.
