The Happiness Movement: How Cities Around the World are Pursuing Joy by Fostering Social Change

'If you want to solve poverty and marginalization, the smartest approach is to get the experts — the poor and marginalized — to help with solutions'. The authors of the report offer a mountain of evidence that human happiness is a much smarter measure of success for cities and nations than just economic growth

World Happiness Report 2019

The World Happiness Report is a landmark survey of the state of global happiness that ranks 156 countries by how happy their citizens perceive themselves to be. This year's World Happiness Report focuses on happiness and the community: how happiness has evolved over the past dozen years, with a focus on the technologies, social norms, conflicts and government policies that have driven those changes. This is the 7th World Happiness Report. The first was released in April 2012 in support of a UN High level meeting on "Wellbeing and Happiness: Defining a New Economic Paradigm". That report presented the available global data on national happiness and reviewed related evidence from the emerging science of happiness...Read more
