

REFRAMING URBAN RESILIENCE IMPLEMENTATION: ALIGNING SUSTAINABILITY AND RESILIENCE

11th International Forum on Urbanism (IFOU) Congress 2018
December 10-11-12 in Barcelona

Dear Colleagues,

We want to remind you that the Abstract and Panel Submission are open for the 11th International Forum on Urbanism 'Reframing Urban Resilience Implementation: Aligning sustainability and resilience', organized by the Urban Resilience Research Network, the School of Architecture of UIC Barcelona and UNHabitat, to be held on the 10,11 and 12 of December 2018 in Barcelona.

The conference will help to bridge science and policy while supporting a consistent implementation of the New Urban Agenda and the 11th Sustainable Development Goal: "Make cities inclusive, safe, resilient, and sustainable." Researchers, practitioners, multilateral agencies, civil society and city-to-city learning networks will collectively shape debates around how to critically understand and integrate different urban resilience implementation perspectives, contributing to more holistic and inclusive urban resilience approaches.
