

International Journal of Japanese Sociology

Read the latest Special Issue from the
International Journal of Japanese Sociology

Special Issue: Cool Japan

Introduction

Ian Condry & Yukio Fujita

Post-3/11 Japan and the Radical Recontextualization of Value: Music, Social Media, and End-Around Strategies for Cultural Action

Ian Condry

Cute Masquerade and the Pimping of Japan

Laura Miller

The Pitfall Facing the Cool Japan Project: The Transnational Development of the Anime Industry under the Condition of Post-Fordism

Yoshitaka Mori

Fabricating Japaneseness? The Identity Politics of Young Designers and Artists in Global Cities

Yuiko Fujita

Can Cool Japan save Post-Disaster Japan? On the Possibilities and Impossibilities of Cool Japanology

Jonathan E. Abel

Other articles

Relative Rank-order of Salient Identities of the Japanese

Ryotaro Uemura

Awarded Articles

2003 JSS Award winner: Article Division

Representations of "the West," "Japan," and "the Periphery" in the Discourse of Lafcadio Hearn Studies

Yoshiaki Fukuma

2010 JSS Award winner: Article Division

Social integration in Post-Multiculturalism: An Analysis of Social Integration Policy in Post-war Britain

Satoshi Adachi

www.wileyonlinelibrary.com/journal/ijjs

The International Journal of Japanese Sociology aims to contribute to an improved understanding of all aspects of Japanese society. The Journal aims to further the interests of The Japan Sociological Society and to promote and develop sociological studies in Japan. The Japan Sociological Society has been the only nationwide organization of Japanese sociology since its founding.