

Social Production of Habitat
Co-learning Space

3rd session

National and international legal and public policy frameworks and instruments favourable to Social Production of Habitat

Thursday, 23rd November 2023

5pm-7pm South Africa Time (see your local time here: <https://bit.ly/sph-3rd-time>)

Register here: <https://bit.ly/sph-3-registration>

Speakers

Elisa Sutanudjaja - A case of Social Production of Habitat in Indonesia with impact in people's lives and public policy

Co-founder and Executive Director of the Rujak Center for Urban Studies (RCUS), a think-act tank based in Jakarta, Indonesia, that works with communities to generate knowledge and practices to form sustainable and just cities.

Maria Carla Rodríguez - The aspects of Law 341 of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires that are most relevant to Social Production of Habitat

Independent researcher at CONICET, Gino Germani Research Institute of the University of Buenos Aires (UBA) in Argentina, and regular professor in the Sociology Department of the Faculty of Social Sciences since 2012.

Samuel Ouko Olando - Key elements of the legal and policy frameworks and its progressiveness in promoting Social Production of Habitat in the Kenyan context.

Current Executive Director of Pamoja Trust in Kenya. He served as a housing rights advocate for over a decade, then joined Pamoja Trust in 2020.

Lorena Zárate Soneyra - Global frameworks favourable to Social Production of Habitat: from Habitat I to the New Urban Agenda and the 2030 Agenda on Sustainable Development.

Current Co-Coordinator of the Support Team of the Global Platform for the Right to the City (GPR2C). She coordinated the Latin American Office of the Habitat International Coalition (HIC-AL) between 2003 and 2011, and she served as HIC President from 2011 to 2019.

supported by /
Avec le soutien de / Apoyado por