Barcelona, 7th of October 2015

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Urban Thinkers Campus is an initiative of UN-Habitat's World Urban Campaign, WUC, conceived as an open space for critical exchange between urban actors, focused on the Habitat III summit in Quito in October 2016.

The Urban Thinkers Campus wishes to have the participation of the best experts in housing. The aim of this meeting is to group together a hundred top specialists in different housing subjects that define the two days discussion sessions.

The promoters' organizations, members of the WUC, with the support of the Barcelona Metropolitan Area, acting as Technical Secretariat, invite you to the Urban Thinkers Campus to be held in Barcelona from 16th to 18th of November 2015.

Please find attached the first preliminary program of the meeting, still subject to possible changes. We would greatly appreciate if you could save the dates, as well as the registration form through

<http://www.amb.cat/en/web/territori/urbanisme/pdu/urban-thinkers-campus/formulari>

The conclusions of the UTC, will be presented on 18 November at 9h30 am on Smart City World Congress framework. To attend the conference, it is requested to apply for accreditation via registration.

Concerning the accommodation, the organization will suggest a nice and comfortable hotel with a good price, with daily transfer included to the Urban Thinkers Campus venue.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Ismael Fernández Mejía
