

Dear Sir/Madam in “National Network for Urban Research”

Tehran Urban Planning and Research Center (TUPRC) invites you to participate in the 9th International Tehran Award, which is dedicated to recent progresses and achievements in the all fields related to cities and urbanization, in order to share knowledge as well as networking as a pillar of the New Urban Agenda. International Tehran Award accept a wide range of applications including books, dissertations, articles, best practices and new technologies. I would like to inform you that the award will accept initial proposals drafts as application and provide support to make the selected proposals real. We also shortlisted at least 5 application which will submitted by you and your organization (via www.tehranaward.ir).

It is my pleasure to say that the final winners will receive the award, moreover Tehran Municipality also provide travel and accommodation cost for the nominees.

I would like to invite you and your organization again participate in the 9th International Tehran Award, we shall be more than happy if receive your submissions and applications and if you kindly share the event on your network.

Hope to see you in Tehran

With the best regards

Ali Farhadi

*Deputy of Science and technology
Tehran Urban Planning and Research Center*

Phone: +982122392080-3

Email: kpir.rpc@tehran.ir

Website: <http://rpc.tehran.ir/en>

Address: No.32, Akbari St. Pol-e-Roomi, Tehran - IRAN

P.O. Box: 1964635611

PS: For your information, the background for the establishment of TUPRC dates back to 1973. The main mission of this center is augmentation of productivity and pioneering to solve the problems of urban management and development planning of Tehran through management of all study processes of Tehran Municipality including cogitation, research, study, innovation and finding new approaches and suitable actions to execute the missions and duties of Tehran Municipality and supervision, evaluation and updating of "Comprehensive Plan" by using of specialists and adapted and updated technologies. This center as one of the most important centers affiliated to Tehran Municipality provides the required study and research services for development of Tehran and to achieve this has a significant cooperation with international organizations and national major universities active in urban issues and sustainable development.