

LEE KUAN YEW WORLD CITY ○ PRIZE

September 2018 | Special feature on Kazan's focus on sports and healthy lifestyle

Nominations for the 2020 Prize are now open! Click here to find out more.

Mass sports in Kazan © City of Kazan

Kazan's second life: how the city found a new purpose in sports

By refashioning itself as a world-class sports capital, the city of Kazan in Russia has shed its youth criminal gang and poor public health problems, improved its residents' life expectancy significantly and persuaded its youth and families to stay and invest in its future.

This month's feature article looks at how Kazan combined comprehensive infrastructural and social programmes to achieve the impressive turnaround in about one decade – and what other cities can learn from Kazan.

Full story »

Kazan in pictures: healthy city, positive lives

In the city of Kazan, the development of urban infrastructure and promoting of a healthy lifestyle with more opportunities for creative and sporting activities shifted the people's interests positively and improved the city's quality of life.

In this photo essay, we look at the various strategies that the city has adopted to turn itself around from a drab city into a healthy city now known for sports, and social and religious harmony.

Photo gallery »

Kazan Arena © City of Kazan

Stage A nominations now open!

The Stage A nominations for the 2020 cycle of the Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize is now open! Click here to find out more about the nominations process.

Cities that are interested to participate would first need to engage an independent third party to nominate them. The 2020 Prize Laureate stands to win a cash prize of S$300,000, a gold medallion and an award certificate sponsored by Keppel Corporation.

Nomination guidelines »

You may have missed the following:

Hamburg transformed

Read how Hamburg creatively uses its brownfields and urban renewal projects to transform itself.

More »

Building liveable cities

Read about the unique urban initiatives of the 4 Special Mentions of the 2018 Prize – Hamburg, Kazan, Surabaya and Tokyo.

More »

Seoul rejuvenated

Read how Seoul – the 2018 Prize Laureate – created for itself a people-first city through creative urban rejuvenation.

More »

Seoul in pictures II

A photo essay on Seoul's innovative projects that conserve modern heritage while preserving collective memories.

More »

About the Prize

The Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize is a biennial international award that honours outstanding achievements and contributions to the creation of liveable, vibrant and sustainable urban communities around the world.

More info »

Publication: Cities in Transformation

This publication includes 11 inspiring, transformative stories of exemplary cities and communities, such as Bilbao and New York City, with practical and impactful urban solutions and ideas that can be adapted across the world. RRP S$60

Purchase info »

Prize Organisers:

CENTRE for
LiveableCities
SINGAPORE

Prize Sponsor:

Keppel Corporation

Presented at:

