

THE CENTER FOR PLACE CULTURE AND POLITICS

ARC SEMINARS FALL 2018 and CUNY Distinguished Visiting Fellowships 2019-2020

On behalf of friends of the Center for Place, Culture and Politics:

The schedule for the ARC SEMINARS FALL 2018:

Advanced Research Collaborative

FALL 2018 SEMINAR SCHEDULE

Thursdays | 4:30-6:30 | Room 5318

|   |  |
|---|--|
|  September 6: Vanessa Pérez-Rosario"Translinguaging in Latin Literature"Associate Professor of Modern Languages and Literatures, Brooklyn College   |  October 25: Marta Gutman"Segregated by Design in New Orleans: Modern Architecture, Education, and Equalization Schools during the Civil Rights Movement"Professor of Architecture, City College and the Graduate Center |
|  September 12: Juan J. De la Cruz"Psychosocial Determinants and Quality of Life Issues among Older Adults with HIV in New York City: Towards More Cost-Effective Interventions"Associate Professor of Economics and Business, Lehman College |  November 1: Preeti Sampat"The Rise of Hindu Nationalism: Infrastructure, Capital and the Politics of Injustice in India"Assistant Professor of Sociology, School of Liberal Studies, Ambedkar University Delhi         |
|  September 20: Francisco Ordóñez"Latin American Spanish and New York City"Professor of Linguistics, Stony Brook University   |  November 8: Lynn Di Iorio"Hurricanes and Other Stories: Inequality in Puerto Rico, Past and Present"Professor of English, City College and CUNY Graduate Center  |
|  September 27: Guadalupe García"Colonial Logic in Latin American and Caribbean Cities"Associate Professor of History, Tulane University  |  November 15: Alastair Pennycook"Metrolingual Assemblages: Things, Words and Practices"Distinguished Professor of Language, Society and Education, University of Technology Sydney                                      |
|  October 4: Mandana Lambert"Prayer, Passports, and the Politics of Indian Ocean Travel"Professor of Anthropology, Queens College   |  November 23: Anna Steigemann"Everyday Diversities in Arrival Cities"Senior Researcher at the Chair of International Urbanism (Stakht Unit) at the Technical University Berlin (TU Berlin)                              |
|  October 11: Anwar Shaikh"Income Inequality and Econophysics: Empirical Evidence and Classical Foundations"Professor of Economics, New School for Social Research  |  December 6: Lourdes Ortega"Researching Adult Multilingualism in Uncertain Times: Constraints and Hopes"Professor of Linguistics, Georgetown University   |
|  October 18: Salvatore Morelli"The Growing Relevance of Wealth Inequality"Visiting Assistant Professor, Stone Center on Socio-Economic Inequality, the Graduate Center   |  December 13: Amy Hsin"Immigration Status and Higher Education: Evidence from a Large Public University"Associate Professor of Sociology, Queens College  |

"Promoting interdisciplinary scholarship at the Graduate Center, CUNY"

and Applications for CUNY Distinguished Fellowships 2019-2020 now being accepted:

THE GRADUATE CENTER
CITY UNIVERSITY
OF NEW YORK

THE ADVANCED RESEARCH
COLLABORATIVE IS

ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS!

THE ADVANCED RESEARCH COLLABORATIVE'S
2019-2020 DISTINGUISHED CUNY AND VISITING
FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS ARE NOW OPEN.

Please apply on our website:
<https://www.gc.cuny.edu/arc>

ARC invites tenured and tenure-track scholars to apply for the Distinguished CUNY Fellowship or the Distinguished Visiting Fellowship who are conducting research in any one of the following areas: Inequality, Immigration, Multilingualism & Translation, Global Cities, Critical University Studies.

Successful applicants will join a community of researchers and doctoral students at the Graduate Center in New York City to pursue their research projects and engage in the institution's intellectual activity.

Application open date: September 1, 2018
Application close date: October 31, 2018
Awardees will be notified by January 31, 2019

---

FOR QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT US AT
ARC@GC.CUNY.EDU