

Colleagues

Please note the vacancy for a Lectureship in Hospitality and Tourism Management in the Department of work, Employment and Organisation at the University of Strathclyde, Glasgow. This is an exciting opportunity for a research focused early career academic wishing to contribute to a multi-disciplinary and high performing scholarly community. The Department is currently home to three major ESRC projects as well as contributing to international GCRF and Horizon2020 studies.

Details can be found at

<https://strathvacancies.engageats.co.uk/LoginV2.aspx?enc=vDVLpy6BrOnmx9szwB5icMU/Bp97ap1BII/jb0LhRYVeh/cn5bYgvW+9EbbSw7a> – select ‘Strathclyde Business School’ as Faculty and ‘Academic’ as Staff Category.

Have a good weekend, all

Tom

Tom Baum PhD DLitt

Professor of Tourism Employment

Department of Work, Employment and Organisation
University of Strathclyde Business School
199 Cathedral Street
Glasgow, G4 0QU

T. (+44) 0141 548 3954

E. t.g.baum@strath.ac.uk

Skype: tombaum1

The University of Strathclyde is a charitable body, registered in Scotland, number SC015263