

Dear all,

Please circulate to those who might be interest in this job opportunity at Uni of Manchester, UK.

Presidential Academic Fellow in Digital Urban Futures

Are you passionate about #PropTech #PlanTech #SmartCities? If so see here
<https://jobs.manchester.ac.uk/brightestminds/displayjob.aspx?jobid=17701>

The post will provide expertise in urban digital futures around smart cities and communities, big data and what is increasingly termed 'PropTech' and/or 'PlanTech'. This is grounded in quantitative social science to address contemporary and future grand challenges in Real Estate and Urban Planning. The post holder will be expected to be undertaking leading-edge research, such as around methods, techniques and/or applications in PropTech / PlanTech, to inform the future smart and digital city. The post holder will be expected to translate their research and findings to the policy and decision making community in ways which will influence policy and practice in cities across the globe. The ability to collaborate with relevant organisations, such as technology companies, will be a desirable asset of the post holder. The postholder will become a member of staff in the Department of Planning and Environmental Management and will therefore be expected to have a PhD in a relevant field such as planning, real estate, built environment or relevant social science.
