

Hi everyone,

The following job post may be of interest to recent or soon-to-be graduates. This post doc position hosted by the College of Social Science at Michigan State University includes competitive pay, a research budget, and the option to transition into a tenure track position after two years.

Candidates interested in working in the Urban and Regional Planning program at MSU can reach out to me (durstnoa@msu.edu) or to Dr. Ming-Han Li (minghan@msu.edu); Director of the School of Planning, Design, and Construction at MSU) prior to submitting an application to learn more about the position and our URP program.

<https://socialscience.msu.edu/diversity/DRAP/index.html>

All my best,

Noah Durst
Assistant Professor of Urban and Regional Planning
Michigan State University

--