

Dear all (apologies for crossposting),

Please circulate to MA students - field of previous study is flexible, project topic to be specified by applicants

Deadline 7 October

Thinking across a spectrum of housing as circulating and multiuser, this project investigates how care work is a material entanglement between a home and its humans, in order to illuminate practices of caring for housing in contexts of mobility.

<https://www.academictransfer.com/nl/304287/phd-candidate-in-practices-of-caring-for-housing-at-the-faculty-of-arts-and-social-sciences-department-of-society-studies-maastricht-university-10fte-4-years/>

Best,

Lauren B Wagner

Assistant Professor

Programme Director, MA in Globalisation and Development Studies

Department of Society Studies

Maastricht University

l.wagner@maastrichtuniversity.nl

<https://www.drlaru.com>

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4778-7408>

Recently out!

Latham, A., & Wagner, L. B. (2021). Experiments in becoming: corporeality, attunement and doing research. Cultural Geographies, 28(1), 91–108. <https://doi.org/10.1177/1474474020949550>

Schaab, T. and Wagner, L. (2020). Expanding transnational care networks: comparing caring for families with caring for homes. Global Networks, 20: 190-207. doi:10.1111/glob.12257

Wagner, L. B. (2019). Contingently elite: affective practices of diasporic urban nightlife consumption, Urban Geography, 40:5, 665-683, DOI: 10.1080/02723638.2017.1390722