

LEE KUAN YEW WORLD CITY ○ PRIZE

Issue 05 / 2023

Discover localised placemaking and meet our new Nominating Committee members!

Going local and ground-up in making places (Part 2)

Communities all over the world are utilising their local knowledge and expertise to breathe new life into unused spaces and honour their unique identity and culture.

In doing so, they are revitalising their neighbourhoods and creating vibrant spaces where residents can truly connect with their surroundings in more meaningful and fulfilling ways.

Read the feature story

Meet our new Nominating Committee members & Prize Secretary!

Introducing our new Nominating Committee members, renowned urban experts Prof Ricky Burdett and Prof Weiping Wu, bringing valuable urban planning insights. We also welcome our new Prize Secretary, Ms Yap Lay Bee.

Find out more

Nominations closed

Nominations for the Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize 2024 have closed, and we would like to extend our sincere gratitude for your interest and participation. We invite you to stay tuned for the announcement of the results in March 2024, where we will celebrate the exceptional cities that are making significant strides in urban sustainability and liveability.

Previous features

- Feature story: Going local and ground-up in making places \(Part 1\)
- Case study 19: Safeguarding Vienna against future floods

Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize is a biennial international award that honours outstanding cities in tackling urban challenges to bring about a holistic & sustained urban transformation. | More info

Secretariat: Urban Redevelopment Authority

Co-organiser: Centre for Liveable Cities

Sponsor: Keppel Corporation

Presented at: World Cities Summit

www.leekuaneyeworldcityprize.gov.sg